Festival Support Staff Registration

The Aims & Objectives of Saul Canal Festival

The Festival will be twelve years old in 2008 and just gets better. Sadly the 2007 Festival was cancelled due to the freak flooding. In 2006 we received over 11,000 visitors. The Festival is administered & operated by a dedicated team of Cotswold Canals Trust volunteers.

Here is why we do it...

Aims

- To raise £40,000 to assist in the restoration of the Cotswold Waterways
- To promote the re-opening of the Cotswold Waterways for the benefit of the community and rural economy
- To promote Saul Junction, the 'cross roads' of the Gloucester-Sharpness Canal & Stroudwater Navigation

Here is how we do it...

Objectives

- Create a profitable trading, entertainment and education arena for the benefit of all
- Stage an event where the owners of canal, river and coastal craft can meet
- Provide an opportunity for the public to view commercial, historic and leisure vessels

As well as all that... We have fun and enjoy the weekend!

There is plenty of room for 'first timers' and previous experience is not a prerequisite
